Food Security Project

The project was undertaken to determine a way to solve the problem of food insecurity that is affecting millions of Kenyans. It was broken down and one piece, agriculture, was determined as a point through which a solution can be developed. The solution involved helping farmers around the country improve the quantity and quality of their agricultural yields by equipping them with information through their smartphones.

Project Video

▶ ALX group 333 milestone10

Project Slide Deck

▢ Farmer's Academy